- 25X1B 1. [REDACTED] The Czech designations such as rota, batterie, escadron, letka, etc. have allegedly been omitted recently. All branches of service were designated only as Setnina.(1)
2. The Budejovice (O 49/Q 96) airfield and four units with letters as designations were subordinate to the regimental headquarters. (2) 25X1X
3. [REDACTED]
4. The regiment, commanded by MajorrKondrys, (fnu), numbered 15 officers, 20 regular NCOs and 600 EM. (3)
5. Each EM was armed with a 38 N gun of German make, a bayonet, and a German gas mask. The NCOs had pistols. Unit M was equipped with four light machine guns of German make, some 41 S submachine guns of Soviet make, and hand grenades manufactured in the Skoda Plant.
6. The entire regiment was quartered in a camp at the Plana airfield, 4 km south of Budejovice. An SNB squadron, equipped with some Arado and Piper Cub planes, was stationed at the field. The runway and taxiway at the field were being improved. (4)
7. The EM were given regular basic infantry training before being trained for air force ground duties. There was no pilot training. (4)

- 25X1A [REDACTED] Comments.
- 25X1A (1) The report confirms that the 2nd AF Repl Regt was still stationed in Budejovice in April 1950. See [REDACTED] The previous belief that the unit was transferred is erroneous. It is believed that the training of reserve officers is being conducted in the 2nd AF Repl Regt. See [REDACTED] 25X1A
